Wonderful lifestyle opportunity for rural living

Located under 10 minute's drive to beaches, hotel, bowling club, schools and nearby cafes this property allows you to get the best out of rural living without being too far from services.

This property is ideal for the conservation minded person or someone who loves natural bushland and wildlife habitat.

This rare 9.4ha (23.22acre) property is located at the bottom of the Dirty Creek Range. It is divided into 2 portions by Solitary Islands Way with an underground tunnel connecting both blocks. The first portion has the original homestead offering 2 bedrooms, north facing verandah, quaint cabin, additional storage sheds, carport, paddocks for horses and dam.

The second portion of land has a charming 1 bedroom cottage with front and back verandahs, fenced yard, aviaries, secure yards and its own dam.

This property has so much potential for someone looking for a rural lifestyle or maybe for an eco-stay opportunity. It definitely appeals to the nature lover with the Yuraygir National Park and State Forest with various bush trails close by.
