

52 Palmer Rd, Woolgoolga, NSW 2456

$855,000

House 4  2  3

All reasonable Offers Considered

If you're looking for the best of both worlds, this property is a must see. Nestled in popular Country Club Estate this impressive country residence offers a tranquil country lifestyle with the convenience of a five minute drive to the township of Woolgoolga with beautiful beaches, award winning cafes, restaurants and so much more. The home offers two separate living zones which are generous in size and designed with large north facing glass windows encapsulating the scenic splendour this home has to offer. With the extensive use of timber from the window frames, raked ceiling and beautiful hardwood floor you will be immediately impressed by the warm and inviting feel that has been created in this home.

Four generous bedrooms are spread across the expansive 3 levels of this magnificent home. The oversized master suite located on the bottom level is enhanced by the calming gardens extending beyond the dam, complete with huge walk through robe and full bathroom. Two bedrooms on the middle level offer their very own private decks that overlook the grounds. The fourth bedroom is located on the top level, offering maximum privacy for guests or perhaps used as a hobby room.

If you enjoy alfresco dining, you have the choice of the spacious front deck or relax in the spa area for a BBQ at the rear. The features of this home just keep coming. Study, wine cellar, 3 car garaging, workshop area and lots of storage. The property also includes a 5 bay shed, 2 dams and chook shed. With roughly half the 2.9ha cleared the property is a perfect mix of agriculture and natural bush. Grand properties like this are a rare find. Inspection is highly recommended.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Property Features

- 2.9ha with 2 dams
- 4 bedrooms plus office
- Outdoor spa
- Extensive shedding and storage
- Beautiful timber features
- Irrigated cropping paddock

Listed By

Cheryl Midavaine
Phone: (02) 66542333

