

4 Wolstenholme Ct, Woolgoolga, NSW 2456

Sold - $645,000

House 4 3 5

Owners have purchased elsewhere

Hidden away in popular Country Club Estate, this charming property is surrounded by tranquil grounds offering maximum privacy. If you can picture yourself waking each day to the sounds of birdlife chattering and gentle breezes in the trees, this is a must see. The home has been built on an elevated part of the block ensuring views across the property. Featuring 4 bedrooms, two of which have private decks. The upstairs bathroom includes a spa and the downstairs bathroom offers the luxury of a claw foot bath. The living areas are open plan and feature gorgeous timber floors, timber window frames and beautiful lead light giving the home a charming ambience. The second living area offers an ideal space for a games room and has access to the large verandah on the Northern side of the home. Take time out to relax in the inground solar heated pool or tinker on your latest project in "The Barn" just a few short meters from the house. Storage wont be a problem with the workshop area and accommodation for 4 cars in addition to the SLUG attached to the main home. The large 4907m2 block will ensure there's plenty of room for outdoor living, boats, caravans and toys.

Open for Inspection

By Appointment.

Property Features

- Games room/bar
- Timber features
- Lead light windows
- Separate Barn/shed with loft

Listed By

Cheryl Midavaine
 Phone: (02) 66542333

